2. Before leaving the library readers must return any book, manuscript or map which they have received, and must return and get back the counterfoils of the consultation forms by which they obtained them. Borrowers will be held responsible for each book issued to them until the ticket on which it was borrowed has been returned to them.

3. A week's notice must be given before a deposit is withdrawn. No deposit will be repaid until all the books outstanding against the depositor and all his borrowers' tickets have been duly returned.

4. Each borrower may have out on loan not more than three separate volumes at one time and must make his own arrangements for their convenience to and from the library.

(a) the number of times each book was borrowed in the library with date; and

(b) the name and address of each person who has borrowed the book from them, with dates of issue and return. Failure by the library to make the monthly returns promptly will be taken to mean that the book is not in demand there and should be returned at once.
